Governor's Service Award Nomination Forms Available for Cumberland County

The Governor's Volunteer Service Award recognizes individuals, groups and businesses that have shown a significant commitment to volunteerism in their community. The categories for types of nomination are senior, youth, faith-based group, family, group, business, etc. Areas of service include environmental, animal, disaster, youth, preservation, etc.

United Way of Cumberland County serves as the Cumberland County Award Coordinator. We invite you to submit a nomination in honor of a worthy individual or group that has been dedicated to volunteering in Cumberland County. United Way will select the top 10 volunteer nominations to recommend to the NC Commission on Volunteerism. The Commission will review nominations throughout the state and notify United Way of Cumberland County of awards given to individuals, groups or businesses in Cumberland County.

For further information, tips on effective nomination and to download the Nomination Form, please visit <https://www.nc.gov/agencies/volunteer/volunteer-awards>. All completed packets must be turned in by Tuesday, January 16th by 5 pm.

For each packet, please submit the following:

- Original and 8 three-hole punched, paper-clipped copies of nomination form
- Mail or hand-deliver completed packet to:
